SENATOR ROBINSON IS CHOSEN AS PERMANENT CHAIRMAN OF THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

PRESIDENT WILSON IS IDOL OF PARTY; CONVENTION WILD AS PICTURE FLASHED

Thirty Minute Demonstration
in Honor of White House Occupant.

TELEGRAM IS SENT TO CHIEF MAGISTRATE

Admiring and Respectful Greetings Extended in Wire
From Cummings.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—Woodrow Wilson is the idol of the democratic national convention and real leader of the democratic party. The convention itself made this plain when it staged a thirty minute demonstration late Monday afternoon at the picture of the President was suddenly displayed, a demonstration that rivaled the inflated ones given at Chicago to the three leading republican presidential candidates as they were placed in nomination. The convention went further and authorized Chairman Cummings to send a telegram of appreciation and greetings to the President.

The telegram follows:

"In recognition of the fact that the mantle of Jackson and Jefferson has fallen on your shoulders as the unquestioned leader of our party, the hosts of democracy in national convention assembled, have directed me to send you the following resolution of appreciation and greetings:

"The democratic party, assembled in national convention, extends to the president of the United States its admiring and respectful greetings.

"For seven of the most fateful years in the history of our country, Woodrow Wilson has occupied, and his character, learning and power, has adorned the highest office in the gift of his countrymen.

"He has initiated and secured the adoption of great progressive measures of immeasurable value and benefit to the people of the United States.

"As the commander in chief of the army and navy of the United States, he has led the patriotic forces of his country, through the most momentous struggle in history, and without check, reverse or retardation, to an honorable part in the immortal victory for liberty and democracy, won by the free nations of the world.

"We hail these achievements, sir, and are proud that they have been accomplished under your administration.

"We rejoice in the recovery of your health and strength after months of suffering and affliction which you have borne with courage and without complaint.

"We deeply resent the malignant onset which you have most undeservedly been called upon to sustain from partisan foes whose judgement is warped and whose perceptions are obscured by a party malice, which constitute a lamentable and disgraceful page in our history.

"At this moment, when the delegates to this convention from every state in the union are about to enter upon their formal proceedings, we pause to send an expression of cheer and admiration and of congratulation.

"We rejoice and felicitate you upon your speedy recovery from your illness."

TODAY'S CONVENTION PROGRAM
1 p. m.—Prayer by Rev. William F. Nichols, bishop of the Episcopal church.
1:05 p. m.—Report of committee on credentials.
1:30 p. m.—Report of committee on permanent organization.
1:45 p. m.—Report of committee on rules and order of business.
Adjournment.

AUDITORIUM, San Francisco, June 29.—The democratic party must make the issue boldly in favor of President Wilson's stand for the league of nations in order that future generations may not be "born to a heritage of wastefulness and bloodshed," Senator Joseph T. Robinson, permanent chairman of the democratic national convention declared today in an address accepting the office.

"If we make this issue boldly we will win," said the Senator. Senator Robinson soundly flayed the republican platform as "an amazing jumble of ambiguities, evasions, inconsistencies, misrepresentations, straddles and slanders."

He declared that the November election would demonstrate the fact that the presidency cannot be auctioned.

GOMPERS IS HEARD
(International News Service.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—The republican party's platform at Chicago was so "lacking in principle" that organized labor must find expression of what it stands for elsewhere, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, declared today when he appeared before the Democratic resolutions committee to urge the adoption of the Montreal convention plank.

TO NOMINATE McADOO
(International News Service.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—William Gibbs McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, will be formally placed in nomination in the convention today at an early morning conference of McAdoo supporters. Burrus Jenkins, of Kansas City, will deliver the nominating speech as planned.

LIQUOR FIGHT OPENS
(International News Service.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—The wet and dry battle started before the resolutions committee today with William Jennings Bryan opposing any amendment of the Volstead act and Congressman Sabath, of Chicago acting as spokesman for those favoring a liberalization of the law.

A clash between Bryan and Senator Carter Glass forced the opening of the prohibition hearing. A dispute arose as to whether Bryan, speaking for the dries, or the spokesman for the wets, should be heard first.

"Apparently the gentlemen cannot agree, perhaps we had better move on to another subject upon which we can agree," Glass said, amid laughter.

Bryan jumped to his feet. "This is no time for joking or quibbling," the Nebraskan declared with tense face.

"The chair resents the intimation that there is any quibbling," Glass retorted angrily, pounding his gavel on his desk in front of him.

Senator Glass, at the suggestion of Senator Pat Harrison, ruled that each side would be given thirty minutes to present its arguments for and against the Volstead act. The argument for the dries was opened by Bishop Cannon, of the Methodist church.

CANDIDATE IS HIDING
(International News Service.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—One day of conversational milling in the auditorium and a Tuesday forenoon steamer excursion in San Francisco Bay has not served to unlock the secret hiding place of the democratic presidential candidate.

But it is increasingly evident that the several avowed candidates yearn more than anything else in this round world to smoke Wm. G. McAdoo into the open. But communication between him and his active little band of treasury and former treasury workers here has been cut, and if he is brought out of his hollow log it will be in coon fashion right in the convention hall. There is now no indication of McAdoo's saying anything or doing anything in person or by proxy to relieve the super-heated suspense, not so much of his friends as of his political rivals. There appears to be a fair prospect of clearing the party platform through the convention by Thursday and perhaps the balloting will begin on Friday, perhaps late Thursday afternoon. Secretary of Agriculture Meredith is still much discussed as vice presidential material.

CHARLES OSBORNE DIES AFTER TAKING POISON DOSE, WILL BE BURIED TUESDAY

Wife Finds Partially Filled Bottle of Carbolic Acid in Clothes Basket.

SURVIVED BY WIFE AND SEVERAL CHILDREN

"Something Seemed to Tell"
Mrs. Osborne to Look in the Basket.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon for Charles B. Osborne, aged 52 years, a painter, who died last night at his home, 215 E. Pond street, after, it is said, he had taken a dose of carbolic acid. Services will be conducted from the cemetery chapel by Rev. G. M. Davenport, pastor of the First Methodist church, Decatur, and interment will be made here.

According to information furnished The Daily by Mrs. Osborne today, Mr. Osborne came by his residence about dusk yesterday and picking up the Osborne baby, started down the street. Fearing for the safety of the infant, she said, a negro followed Mr. Osborne around the corner and returned in a moment with a basket and baby, informing Mrs. Osborne that her husband seemed to be ill. The basket contained clothing Mr. Osborne had requested his wife to send him as he planned to "go to Birmingham."

Following the report of the negro, Mrs. Osborne hurried to her husband. A short time later, however, police arrived on the scene. It is said they were looking for Osborne to take him into custody on a surrendered bond. Osborne was later taken to his home, and Dr. J. Y. Hamill was called, but the stricken man was beyond medical assistance. It is not known definitely when he swallowed the poison. Mrs. Osborne stated "something seemed to tell" her to look in the basket and she then discovered the bottle which contained a quantity of acid.

Osborne had been arraigned in the Decatur police court yesterday morning on charges of mistreating his wife. He was given a fine and stern sentence, the latter being suspended during good behavior.

The deceased is survived by his wife and several young children.

PASSENGERS ARE ROBBED BY LONE BANDIT, ESCAPES

SACRAMENTO, June 29.—Railroad detectives and hastily organized posse are today scouring the country for a lone bandit who last night boarded the Overland Limited on the Southern Pacific railroad, held up the passengers in the two rear sleepers, and escaped. The bandit forced a flagman to go through the sleeping cars with him and hold the curtains apart while he robbed the occupants of the berths.

BRYAN LEFT OFF STEERING COMMITTEE WHICH WRITES THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN
(International News Service.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—Piqued at not being selected as a member of the sub-committee of the resolutions committee, to draft the proposed democratic platform, W. J. Bryan, it was learned today, has decided not to present his dry plank at the hearing on the liquor question scheduled at today's meeting of the committee.

He has decided to wait until a draft of the platform is brought out by the sub-committee.

MRS. JOHN D. McNEEL CHOSEN ALABAMA COMMITTEEWOMAN Defeated Mrs. Thos. Kilby and Mrs. Pattie Ruff- ner Jacobs in a Spirited Fight.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—The Alabama delegation terminated a lively three-cornered fight by electing Mrs. John D. McNeel, of Birmingham, wife of the collector of internal revenue, as national committeewoman from Alabama. She will have equal and concurrent jurisdiction with Col. W. T. Sanders, of Athens, national committeeman. Other candidates were Thomas Kilby, wife of the governor, and Mrs. Pattie Ruffner Jacobs, Birmingham, the widely known suffrage leader. The vote stood: Mrs. McNeel 11, Mrs. Kilby 9, Mrs. Jacobs 2. Mrs. Jacobs received the votes of the two labor delegates from Alabama to the national convention, W. L. Harrison and Hunter Armstrong.

The Alabama delegation selected Borden Burr, of Birmingham, as member of the resolutions committee of the convention, and voted to endorse the action of National Committeeman Sanders in voting to unseat the Watson and Smith delegation from Georgia and to oust Jim Reed of Missouri.

FREIGHT YARDS AT CHICAGO BURNED

CHICAGO, June 29.—A spectacular fire today swept and completely destroyed the freight transfer yards of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad with an estimated loss of $1,000,000. Sixteen persons were killed and 100 others were burned slightly.

SOUTHERN LABOR SOUNDS WARNING TO DEMOCRATS

(International News Service.)
ATLANTA, June 29.—Railroad union leaders representing the south-east, following a meeting last night, wired the resolutions committee of the democratic national convention, a warning that unless the convention "deals justly with labor, the labor vote of the south would bolt the democratic party this year, thus breaking the solid south."

EIGHTY ARE BURIED WHEN HOUSE FALLS

(International News Service.)
BUFFALO, June 29.—More than 80 men, roomers in a cheap lodging house on Main Street, were burned in the ruins of the building when it collapsed this morning. Firemen and police are searching the debris for bodies. Later four men were removed from the debris. Fourteen others are believed to be dead.

MOORE IS HERE TO AID DISABLED MEN GET HELP OF U. S.; WILL STAY 2 DAYS

Representative of Vocational Board Will Confer With Ex-Service Men.

PLAN OF TRAINING AND ALLOWANCE EXPLAINED

Will be in Hartselle on Thursday and Friday of This Week.

W. C. Moore from the New Orleans office of the Federal Board for Vocational Education will be at Red Cross headquarters, over City National Bank, Decatur, on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 29 and 30. He is anxious to get in touch with disabled ex-service men and to get them interested in vocational training.

Those who have never had their eligibility for vocational training determined will have an opportunity to appear before a "Case Board" in Birmingham on one of the following dates: July 8, 9, 10. Mr. Moore is authorized to issue transportation to those men who may feel that they are entitled to training, and who prefer to have their cases investigated close at home rather than making a trip to New Orleans. If any of these men have planned to attend the Rainbow Veterans Reunion on July 12, 13, or 14, they might ask that transportation be furnished so that they could appear before the case board on one of the reunion days.

The case board will consist of a representative from the Washington office of the Federal Board for Vocational Education, a doctor, and a clerk. The members of the Board will talk to each man, and decide whether or not he is entitled to vocational training under the rehabilitation act. If found eligible for training they will advise with him in the selection of a suitable course, and help him choose a school where training is to be taken. If training is to be taken "on the job" the placement training officer will make arrangements for the desired course.

The board will issue return transportation to the man's home, and, if any should be held over for further examination or interview, meal and lodging requests will be furnished.

Vocational training with a monthly allowance is offered to those disabled men (a) who were honorably discharged, (b) who have a disability that was incurred, increased, or aggravated by military or naval service, or that is traceable to such service, (c) and who cannot return successfully to their former occupations because of such disability. Of course a man must be physically and mentally in a condition to profit by training before he enters on a course. While in training single men without dependents are paid $80 per month by the Federal Board. Married men are paid $115, and additional allowances are provided for certain classes of dependents. Books and tuition are paid for by the Board but the men pay their own board and living expenses.

"If you know of any disabled ex-service men who are interested in vocational training, or who need it and ought to be interested, tell them to see Mr. Moore on one of the days mentioned above," Red Cross officials said today.

Mr. Moore plans to be in Hartselle Thursday and Friday and up to noon Saturday. Each county is being worked as a unit and it is hoped that quite a number of Morgan County men who have war disabilities will take advantage of the opportunities offered by the Government, and will fit themselves for new vocations or for branches of their former vocations where their disabilities will not prove to be serious handicaps.

WILSON DOMINANT IN PARTY COUNCILS

If President Wilson, cooped up in the White House by an illness brought on through overwork, had his ear to the long distance telephone and heard that great thirty-minute demonstration at San Francisco yesterday, he must have felt repaid for the sacrifices that he has made for his nation and his party. There was no mistaking the tenor of the demonstration. It had but one meaning, and that was that Woodrow Wilson is the dominant factor in the democratic party today; that he is the real leader and that his guidance will be accepted and his administration defended.

The affection and respect in which the President is held by the hosts of democracy is a fitting recognition of his great ability. This affection survives despite the premeditated attacks of republican propagandists. It survives despite the defection of such men as William Jennings Bryan, who sought to ditch the League of Nations so as to give the prohibition issue a place in the sun, and of Robert Lansing, who grew peeved when caught attempting to deliver a spurious brand of goods. The cleverest schemes of his enemies have fallen flat against President Wilson, who stands entrenched in a citadel of altruism and idealism that is impregnable against the cohorts of expediency.

Mr. Wilson represents certain principles that cannot be dunned. He stands for the broadest humanitarianism for the rights of the weak, for the unselfish assuming of world obligations. So long as time lasts there will be men and women who are ready to give heed to the promptings of their consciences and to battle for any cause that they believe to be right. And by such as these, the martyred President will always be revered.

There are two dominant political parties in America today. One represents capitalism, reactionism, selfishness. The other champions the cause of mankind. It is the party of pity, of square dealing, of universal welfare. It is fitting that Woodrow Wilson should be its chosen knight.

Homer S. Cummings "got 'em told" yesterday at the Democratic National convention, when in answer to a question as to what nations had not joined the League of Nations he replied: "Revolutionary Mexico, bolshevist Russia, unspeakable Turkey and the United States."

Inasmuch as Mr. Bryan resigned from the cabinet rather than help fight the war, it would be peculiarly inappropriate for him to be allowed to write the foreign policy plank of the democratic platform.

The popular query, "what would McAdoo?" is easily answered. He would win in a walk.

The republican party exposed its hand when it put the weak man on the big end of the ticket. There was entirely too much method in that particular bit of madness.

Alabama now has a national committee woman. After all, the world do move.

Democrats, who love alliteration, can hear nothing but "McAdoo and Meredith".

Senator Jim Reed, of Missouri, was shown again.

In endorsing Senator Harding for president, young Teddy Roosevelt, Jr. tacitly admitted that the republican presidential candidate was right four years ago when he denounced the Sage of Oyster Bay as a "traitor" to his party.

San Francisco is at least three full hours behind the central time.

Governor Roberts, of Tennessee, has a chance to set his party right and also to square himself at home.

"Much Ado Over McAdoo" is the correct title of the little drama that is being presented exclusively at the Golden Gate.

Some of the ousted Georgia delegates are predicting that the Cracker State will go republican in November. And all because the democratic national convention couldn't see a crowd headed by Hoke Smith and Tom Watson. Direful prognostications may be of service at San Francisco, but they won't pan out in Georgia. That state was leading the hosts of democracy long before it fell under the spell of disloyal leaders. It will not backslide.

If the women vote this November it's a good guess that the old-fashioned political garb will be replaced by a Twentieth century model.

When suffrage is granted to the fair sex, just think of the demands that will be made upon the nation's stock of garden seed.

JUST IN PASSING

Prof. W. W. Benson, superintendent of the Decatur schools, was here yesterday on his return from Blue Ridge, N. C. Mr. Benson attended a Y. M. C. A. conference at the Carolina mountain resort. More than fifty southern colleges were represented. Mr. Benson representing the Florence Normal school in which institution he has taught for many years. He is enthusiastic over the climate of "The Land of the Sky" and over the prospects of his new home here.

PICTURES IN WAR CRY

During the past year more than one periodical of national circulation has contained references to the Twin Cities. Roy Octavus Cohen, Birmingham writer, started the ball rolling when he placed the opening of one of his negro stories for the Saturday Evening Post in Decatur. The War Cry, national publication of the Salvation Army, is the latest to fall in line. This week's War Cry carries a handsome photograph of the Decatur workers in the recent Salvation Army drive. Photographs are shown of the following: W. W. Fussell, treasurer; Capt. W. J. Williams, Mrs. Captain Williams, J. H. Calvin, chairman; P. Ballar, W. E. Roper, J. C. White, W. M. Bailey, R. Pearson.

GOING TO REUNION

"You bet I am going to the Rainbow reunion," said Raymond R. Brown of Company E and leader of the local unit in the Rainbow division through all of the major engagements of the World War. "We expect to have a big crowd of the boys there and the Magic City is planning a whale of a program of entertainment for us."

HAS PROMINENT PART

One of the well known figures at the first annual convention of the Rainbow division, to be held in Birmingham, Alabama, in July, will be a local boy, Harry L. Carter, who now is secretary of the Rainbow veteran's organization. Mr. Carter, who was a sergeant during the war, was elected secretary of the organization at a meeting held in France.

SPEECHES TOMORROW

(International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—After a prolonged and bitter fight to determine whether the platform or the nomination of a candidate was the most important business, the rules committee today voted to recommend that the convention proceed with nominating speeches at 1 P. M. on Wednesday afternoon but that balloting should not begin until after the platform had been adopted.

The order of business recommended was as follows: Reports of credentials committee, report of committee on permanent organization, report of rules committee, nominating speeches to begin at 1 P. M. on Wednesday, adoption of report of rules committee, balloting for nominees for president, balloting for vice president, presentation of resolution.

BARRETT IS PEEVED

(International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—Characterizing the action of the committee on credentials on seating the Palmer delegation from Georgia as a "high handed proceeding that would disgrace a Hottentot," C. E. Barrett, chairman of the contesting delegation, declared that the fight had only begun. He charged that the credentials committee was a "packed body" and acted under orders from Washington.

McADOO ON SIXTH

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—"W. G. McAdoo will be nominated not later than the sixth ballot" asserted National Committeeman Love of Texas just before the second season got under way today. The forecast came following a series of conferences called to ascertain the strength of the McAdoo movement.

Mrs. H. Zinsmeister, 715 Fourth avenue, Albany, says: "Some years ago I was in pretty bad shape with kidney trouble. I had been over lifting and doing pretty heavy work generally and I think that was the cause of my complaint. My kidneys didn't act right and I couldn't rest comfortably. The joints of my fingers swelled and ached and the pains ran clear into my shoulders. I tried different remedies but got no relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills which I bought at Dillehay Brothers' Drug Store. This medicine proved to be just what I needed and two boxes entirely rid me of my trouble. The cure has proven permanent and I cannot recommend Doan's too highly." 60c. at all dealers. COUNCIL MEATS

Better Meats That Cost Less
No Waste · No Ice Needed

Ready-Cooked To Perfection

Only pay for the meat you eat—not for the trimmings and waste

WHEN you pay sixty or seventy cents for a piece of meat, a goodly part of it is wasted because you can't eat all the meat you buy. There are the fat and bones and trimmings—all paid for at the price of meat—and only a little of the fat can be used, the rest is just a loss. Besides which, uncooked meat contains much water that is lost in cooking—but you've paid for the water at meat prices.

But there is a way to overcome that loss, which is 15% or 25% of what you spend on meat today.

And that is by buying ready-cooked, wholesome and delicious Council Meats. There are many varieties of Council Meats—Veal Loaf—Roast Beef—oh, a host of good meat dishes—all so easily prepared! Why you'll be just a few minutes fixing the meat course for breakfast, luncheon or dinner.

But the goodness and the ease of preparation are minor advantages compared to the real economy you will find, in buying ready-cooked Council Meats instead of meat you have to trim and cook.

Crossing the Bar.
 Sunset and evening star,
 And one clear call for me!
 And may there be no moaning of the bar,
 When I put out to sea,
 But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
 Too full for sound and foam,
 When that which drew from out the boundless deep
 Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
 And after that the dark!
 And may there be no sadness of farewell,
 When I embark;
 For, though from out our bourne of time and place
 The flood may bear me far,
 I hope to see my Pilot face to face
 When I have crossed the bar.
 —Alfred Tennyson.

Misses Cleo and Zana Lovin sang the sad sweet old song, "Down on the Suwannee River," which was beautiful and appropriate. Maxie Speake also entertained with a reading "The Little Brown Baby" and Mrs. Frank Miller, "Little Black Joe". Both added much to the pleasure of the evening. A business session followed. A motion was made, that a rising vote of thanks be extended the singers, who rendered the beautiful musical program for the "Wayfarer", a vote of thanks be sent each by the secretary. Mr. R. H. Wolcott rendered a valuable service and kind consideration to the missionary society in bringing the picture here.

QUIET FIFTH IS THE PROSPECT NOW

SHOPS, BANKS WILL CLOSE BUT NO "BIG DOINGS" ARE PLANNED.

A quiet "fifth" is the prospect in Albany and Decatur. The banks of the two cities and the Louisville and Nashville shops will be closed, but no formal observation of Independence Day is planned. Feature pictures will be offered at the theatres and a baseball game is booked for the park. A number of fishing trips are scheduled, while many citizens plan to spend the day in Huntsville, where a big celebration has been arranged by the civic organizations. The Fourth of July, coming on Sunday this year, has thrown the celebrations one day late.

PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER BORROWED BUS FARE: HAD ONLY PENNY

(International News Service)
 NEW YORK, June 29.—That Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the President, had to borrow bus fare from a conductor on the Fifth Avenue line on a recent visit to New York is a story told in the Fifth Avenue Coach Company's periodical, Bus Lines.

She mounted the bus at Fifth Avenue and Thirty-fourth street, proffered Conductor P. G. Lynch a coin. He looked at it and remarked:

"I'm sorry, but this is a penny, not a dime."

The young woman searched her purse and then, embarrassed, said: "I'm afraid I must get off. That penny is all I have."

"Remain where you are," said Conductor Lynch, who was not aware of his passenger's identity. "I will be glad to lend you ten cents."

She accepted his offer and took his name. A few days later Conductor Lynch was greatly surprised to receive a letter written on White House stationery and signed "Margaret Woodrow Wilson."

 Alfalfa receives its name from an old Arab word which means in English "the best kind of fodder." The plant looks something like clover and grows very rapidly. In fact it grows so quickly that three or four crops can be harvested during the summer.

WOMEN FOR ENGLISH ON IN THE SCHOOLS

(International News Service)
 DES MOINES, June 29.—A resolution recommending that English be the only language of instruction in the public schools of the country was presented to a conference of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, in biennial convention here.

The resolution further requests that there be independent citizenship for women, and the children of aliens may become naturalized when they reach their majority by taking a test for literacy.

Fading Shrines of Oriental Splendor

To me, after revisiting the East after an absence of ten years, it seems as if all its splendid past and all its present discontent were recorded and symbolized in the imperial palaces of Peking, Seoul and Tokyo. Ten years ago all three were the habitations of emperors, sacred spots from whose mysterious depths issued the edicts wherewith men trembled and obeyed. Today the Son of Heaven and the Lord of the Morning Calm have gone their ways, to join the mournful company of kings in exile. Only his majesty of Tokyo remains, a dim, mysterious figure in the medieval seclusion of Chiyoda, a picturesque survival of old Japan, like an idol in a shrine, a sort of living Buddha in the great new city throbbing with machinery.—J. O. P. Bland in Asia.

Unconscious Cerebration

Appropos of the popular interest in the outboard, a correspondent says: "An experiment in unconscious cerebration may be made in this way. Take a 5-cent piece and to it attach a fine silk thread with a bit of sealing wax. Then take an empty tumbler and suspend the nickel in the center of the glass, holding the thread tightly between the thumb and finger and resting the elbow on the 'funny bone.' Then, without conscious volition of the muscles, think of its movement east, west, north or south, or returning to the center. You will find that the coin will obey the thought, although you give consciously no direction for the movement."—From the Outlook.

WILSON DOMINANT IN PARTY COUNCILS

If President Wilson, cooped up in the White House by an illness brought on through overwork, had his ear to the long distance telephone and heard that great thirty-minute demonstration at San Francisco yesterday, he must have felt repaid for the sacrifices that he has made for his nation and his party. There was no mistaking the tenor of the demonstration. It had but one meaning, and that was that Woodrow Wilson is the dominant factor in the democratic party today; that he is the real leader and that his guidance will be accepted and his administration defended.

The affection and respect in which the President is held by the hosts of democracy is a fitting recognition of his great ability. This affection survives despite the premeditated attacks of republican propagandists. It survives despite the defection of such men as William Jennings Bryan, who sought to ditch the League of Nations so as to give the prohibition issue a place in the sun, and of Robert Lansing, who grew peeved when caught attempting to deliver a spurious brand of goods. The cleverest schemes of his enemies have fallen flat against President Wilson, who stands entrenched in a citadel of altruism and idealism that is impregnable against the cohorts of expediency.

Mr. Wilson represents certain principles that cannot be downed. He stands for the broadest humanitarianism for the rights of the weak, for the unselfish assuming of world obligations. So long as time lasts there will be men and women who are ready to give heed to the promptings of their consciences and to battle for any cause that they believe to be right. And by such as these, the martyred President will always be revered.

There are two dominant political parties in America today. One represents capitalism, reactionism, selfishness. The other champions the cause of mankind. It is the party of pity, of square dealing, of universal welfare. It is fitting that Woodrow Wilson should be his chosen knight.

Homer S. Cummings "got 'em told" yesterday at the Democratic National convention, when in answer to a question as to what nations had not joined the League of Nations he replied: "Revolutionary Mexico, bolshevist Russia, unspeakable Turkey and the United States."

Inasmuch as Mr. Bryan resigned from the cabinet rather than help fight the war, it would be peculiarly inappropriate for him to be allowed to write the foreign policy plank of the democratic platform.

The popular query, "what would McAdoo?" is easily answered. He would win in a walk.

The republican party exposed its hand when it put the weak man on the big end of the ticket. There was entirely too much method in that particular bit of madness.

Alabama now has a national committee woman. After all, the world do move.

Democrats, who love alliteration, can hear nothing but "McAdoo and Meredith."

Senator Jim Reed, of Missouri, was shown again.

In endorsing Senator Harding for president, young Teddy Roosevelt, Jr. tacitly admitted that the republican presidential candidate was right four years ago when he denounced the Sage of Oyster Bay as a "traitor" to his party.

San Francisco is at least three full hours ahead the central time.

Governor Roberts, of Tennessee, has a chance to set his party right and also to square himself at home.

"Much Ado Over McAdoo" is the correct title of the little drama that is being presented exclusively at the Golden Gate.

Some of the ousted Georgia delegates are predicting that the Cracker State will go republican in November. And all because the democratic national convention couldn't see a crowd headed by Hoke Smith and Tom Watson. Direful prognostications may be of service at San Francisco, but they won't pan out in Georgia. That state was leading the hosts of democracy long before it fell under the spell of disloyal leaders. It will not backslide.

If the women vote this November it's a good guess that the old-fashioned political garb will be replaced by a Twentieth century model.

When suffrage is granted to the fair sex, just think of the demands that will be made upon the nation's stock of garden seed.

JUST IN PASSING

Prof. W. W. Benson, superintendent of the Decatur schools, was here yesterday on his return from Blue Ridge, N. C. Mr. Benson attended a Y. M. C. A. conference at the Carolina mountain resort. More than fifty southern colleges were represented. Mr. Benson representing the Florence Normal school in which institution he has taught for many years. He is enthusiastic over the climate of "The Land of the Sky" and over the prospects of his new home here.

PICTURES IN WAR CRY

During the past year more than one periodical of national circulation has contained references to the Twin Cities. Roy Octavus Cohen, Birmingham writer, started the ball rolling when he placed the opening of one of his negro stories for this Saturday Evening Post in Decatur. The War Cry, national publication of the Salvation Army, a line latest to fall in line. This week's War Cry carries a handsome photograph of the Decatur workers in the recent Salvation Army drive. Photographs are shown of the following: W. W. Fussell, treasurer; Capt. W. J. Williams, Mrs. Captain Williams, J. H. Calvin, chairman; P. Bellar, W. E. Roper, J. C. White, W. M. Ball, R. Pearson.

GOING TO REUNION

"You bet I am going to the Rainbow reunion," said Raymond R. Brown of Company E and leader of the local unit in the Rainbow division through all of the major engagements of the World War. "We expect to have a big crowd of the boys there and the Magic City is planning a whale of a program of entertainment for us."

HAS PROMINENT PART

One of the well known figures at the first annual convention of the Rainbow division, to be held in Birmingham, Alabama, in July, will be a local boy, Harry L. Carter, who now is secretary of the Rainbow veteran's organization. Mr. Carter, who was a sergeant during the war, was elected secretary of the organization at a meeting held in France.

SPEECHES TOMORROW

(International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—After a prolonged and bitter fight to determine whether the platform or the nomination of a candidate was the most important business, the rules committee today voted to recommend that the convention proceed with nominating speeches at 1 P. M. on Wednesday afternoon but that balloting should not begin until after the platform had been adopted.

The order of business recommended was as follows: Reports of credentials committee, report of committee on permanent organization, report of rules committee, nominating speeches to begin at 1 P. M. on Wednesday, adoption of report of rules committee, balloting for nominees for president; balloting for vice president, presentation of resolution.

BARRETT IS PEEVED

(International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—Characterizing the action of the committee on credentials, on seating the Palmer delegation from Georgia as a "high handed proceeding that would disgrace a Hottentot," C. E. Barrett, chairman of the contesting delegation, declared that the fight had only begun. He charged that the credentials committee was a "packed body" and acted under orders from Washington.

McADOO ON SIXTH

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—"W. G. McAdoo will be nominated not later than the sixth ballot" asserted National Committeeman Love of Texas just before the second session got under way today. The forecast came following a series of conferences called to ascertain the strength of the McAdoo movement.

IT IS SERIOUS

Some Albany People Fail to Realize the Seriousness of a Bad Back.

The constant aching of a bad back. The weariness, the tired feeling. The pains and aches of kidney ills. May result seriously if neglected. Dangerous urinary troubles often follow.

An Albany citizen shows you what to do.

Mrs. H. Zinsmeister, 715 Fourth avenue, Albany, says: "Some years ago I was in pretty bad shape with kidney trouble. I had been over lifting and doing pretty heavy work generally and I think that was the cause of my complaint. My kidneys didn't act right and I couldn't rest comfortably. The joints of my fingers swelled and ached and the pains ran clear into my shoulders. I tried different remedies but got no relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills which I bought at Dillehay Brothers' Drug Store. This medicine proved to be just what I needed and two boxes entirely rid me of my trouble. The cure has proven permanent and I can not recommend Doan's too highly." 60c. at all dealers. COUNCIL MEATS

Better Meats That Cost Less
No Waste · No Ice Needed
Always Tender
Ready-Cooked To Perfection

Only pay for the meat you eat—not for the trimmings and waste

WHEN you pay sixty or seventy cents for a piece of meat, a goodly part of it is wasted because you can't eat all the meat you buy. There are the fat and bones and trimmings—all paid for at the price of meat—and only a little of the fat can be used, the rest is just a loss. Besides which, uncooked meat contains much water that is lost in cooking—but you've paid for the water at meat prices.

But there is a way to overcome that loss, which is 15% or 25% of what you spend on meat today.

And that is by buying ready-cooked, wholesome and delicious Council Meats. There are many varieties of Council Meats—Veal Loaf—Roast Beef—oh, a host of good meat dishes—all so easily prepared! Why you'll be just a few minutes fixing the meat course for breakfast, luncheon or dinner.

But the goodness and the ease of preparation are minor advantages compared to the real economy you will find in buying ready-cooked Council Meats instead of meat you have to trim and cook.

Crossing the Bar
 Sunset and evening star,
 And one clear call for me!
 And may there be no moaning of the bar,
 When I put out to sea,
 But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
 Too full for sound and foam,
 When that which drew from out the boundless deep
 Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
 And after that the dark!
 And may there be no sadness of farewell,
 When I embark;
 For, though from out our bourne of time and place
 The flood may bear me far,
 I hope to see my Pilot face to face
 When I have crossed the bar.
 —Alfred Tennyson.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY CENTRAL M. E. CHURCH
 The Women's Missionary Society of Central M. E. Church met with Mrs. Foster and Mrs. E. M. Odum as joint hostesses, Monday afternoon, June 28. Mrs. C. W. Black conducted the devotional, and was leader, subject for the afternoon "Our duty to the Negro". Mrs. W. B. Roberston, Mrs. B. Preuit and Mrs. Crow assisted in the program, giving the educational, religious, and health conditions of the race.

Misses Cleo and Zana Lovin sang the sad sweet old song, "Down on the Suwanee River," which was beautiful and appropriate. Maxie Speake also entertained with a reading "The Little Brown Baby" and Mrs. Frank Miller, "Little Black Joe". Both added much to the pleasure of the evening. A business session followed. A motion was made, that a rising vote of thanks be extended the singers who rendered the beautiful musical program for the "Wayfarer", a vote of thanks be sent each by the secretary. Mr. R. H. Wolcott rendered a valuable service and kind consideration to the missionary society in bringing the picture here.

QUIET FIFTH IS THE PROSPECT NOW

SHOPS, BANKS WILL CLOSE BUT NO "BIG DOINGS" ARE PLANNED.

A quiet "fifth" is the prospect in Albany and Decatur. The banks of the two cities and the Louisville and Nashville's shops will be closed, but no formal observation of Independence Day is planned. Feature pictures will be offered at the theatres and a baseball game is booked for the park. A number of fishing trips are scheduled, while many citizens plan to spend the day in Huntsville, where a big celebration has been arranged by the civic organizations. The Fourth of July, coming on Sunday this year, has thrown the celebrations one day late.

PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER BORROWED BUS FARE: HAD ONLY PENNY

(International News Service)
 NEW YORK, June 29.—That Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the President, had to borrow bus fare from a conductor on the Fifth Avenue line on a recent visit to New York is a story told in the Fifth Avenue Coach Company's periodical, Bus Lines.

She mounted the bus at Fifth Avenue and Thirty-fourth street, proffered Conductor P. G. Lynch a coin. He looked at it and remarked: "I'm sorry, but this is a penny, not a dime."

The young woman searched her purse and then, embarrassed, said: "I'm afraid I must get off. That penny is all I have."

She accepted his offer and took his name. A few days later Conductor Lynch was greatly surprised to receive a letter written on White House stationery and signed "Margaret Woodrow Wilson."

Alfalfa.
 Alfalfa receives its name from an old Arab word which means in English "the best kind of fodder." The plant looks something like clover and grows very rapidly. In fact it grows so quickly that three or four crops can be harvested during the summer.

Mrs. James Allen Fuller, of Huntsville, is the guest this evening of Miss Marjorie Miller.

Miss Mary Williams, who has many friends here, is now at Asheville, N. C., where she is taking a course in lip reading.

Miss Bernice McClure and brother are guests of friends at Tusculum.

Mrs. Chas. Montgomery, of Huntsville, is at the bedside of her son, Albert Montgomery, who is ill at his home in West Albany.

Mrs. P. Cartwright left this afternoon to spend several weeks in North Carolina.

Mrs. John McGehee, who has been ill at her home on East Vine street, is improved today.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carter expect to leave next month for an extended eastern tour.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Chase arrived yesterday for a visit to Mrs. Chase's mother, Mrs. B. M. Bloodworth.

Mrs. Will Wyker has returned from a week's visit to relatives at Putnam.

PERSONAL

Mr. Claiborne Halbrooks and daughter, Marguerite, left today to visit friends and relatives in Detroit, Mich.

Harry Rosenbaum, of Salt Lake City, is here, the guest of his brother, Louis Rosenbaum. He will probably remain in this section for several weeks. Mr. Rosenbaum is engaged in the automobile business.

R. M. DeFord went to Benevolent hospital today for an operation on his leg.

Robert Banks, of Memphis, Tenn., is visiting relatives here.

Dr. Simrell Wyatt returns this evening to Lexington, Ky., after a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Wyatt.

WOMEN FOR ENGLISH ON IN THE SCHOOLS

(International News Service)
 DES MOINES, June 29.—A resolution recommending that English be the only language of instruction in the public schools of the country was presented to a conference of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, in biennial convention here.

The resolution further requests that there be independent citizenship for women, and the children of aliens may become naturalized when they reach their majority by taking a test for literacy.

Fading Shrines of Oriental Splendor

To me, after revisiting the East after an absence of ten years, it seems as if all its splendid past and all its present discontent were recorded and symbolized in the imperial palaces of Peking, Seoul and Tokyo. Ten years ago all three were the habitations of emperors, sacred spots from whose mysterious depths issued the edicts whereat men trembled and obeyed. Today the Son of Heaven and the Lord of the Morning Calm have gone their ways, to join the mournful company of kings in exile. Only his majesty of Tokyo remains, a dim, mysterious figure in the medieval seclusion of Chiyoda, a picturesque survival of old Japan, like an idol in a shrine, a sort of living Buddha in the great new city throbbing with machinery.—J. O. P. Bland in Asia.

Unconscious Cerebration

Appropos of the popular interest in the outlay board, a correspondent says: "An experiment in unconscious cerebration may be made in this way. Take a 5-cent piece and to it attach a fine silk thread with a bit of sealing wax. Then take an empty tumbler and suspend the nickel in the center of the glass, holding the thread tightly between the thumb and finger and resting the elbow on the 'funny bone.' Then, without conscious volition of the muscles, think of its movement east, west, north or south, or returning to the center. You will find that the coin will obey the thought, although you give consciously no direction for the movement."—From the Outlook.

AUSTINVILLE FOR HEALTH PROGRAM

PROGRESSIVE COMMUNITY FAVORS THE PLAN FOR SANITARY IMPROVEMENTS.

As in every instance when called upon for a manifestation of their community spirit, the citizens of Austinville have come forward and declared themselves heartily in favor of the sanitary improvements urged by the County Health Department.

Dr. Black, who is in charge of the work in Austinville, stated today that he was very much pleased with the progress of the health campaign and the great spirit displayed in Austinville. It is indeed gratifying to know that a number of prominent citizens of this splendid town, when called upon yesterday for an expression of their opinion of the proposed improvements in the sanitary conditions, stated at once, that their undivided support would be given the movement.

All citizens who do not understand the details of these improvements will do well to confer with Dr. Black at once. Meanwhile note the slogan—"Watch Austinville Improve"—and its fulfillment. 100% of the people interviewed on the subject so far, have declared themselves in the affirmative.

LEAGUE IDEA IS NOT NEW, HE SAYS

EVANGELIST DENSLOW MAKES STRONG PLEA FOR AN ENDURING PEACE.

"As long as sin and damnation remain in the human heart of man, war will continue," said Evangelist Oliver L. Denslow in his lecture last night at the Bible Chautauqua tent, on the subject entitled, "Prophecy and the Peace League."

With a strong plea for peace and a discontinuance of the preparedness program, Evangelist Denslow continued in part as follows:

"The idea of a League of Nations for peace, is by no means anything new, but no doubt the greatest attempt to secure peace thru a league was the most recent one in which our president, Hon. Woodrow Wilson has a very leading part. The great trouble is not the fact that the nations of the world do not desire peace, for they all want it and want it in a very earnest way. But the difficulty is, they want it on their own selfish terms, regardless of the effect of those terms on the other nations involved.

The subject tonight is "The Little Dream That Caused the Kaiser's Defeat."

BALL LEAGUE TALK IS REVIVED AGAIN

COLUMBIA FANS NOW CLAMORING FOR BASEBALL CIRCUIT THIS YEAR.

The proposed circuit of North Alabama and Tennessee cities to furnish fast semi-professional ball for the fans this summer is revived by action of Columbia fans, who are raising funds to equip a team. Columbia, one of the largest cities in the circuit originally proposed here last winter, heretofore has been one of the "hold-outs" and despite efforts made here to interest cities in the project, the efforts have met with little success.

Lawrenceburg already has a team, together with Sheffield and the Wilson Dam. Should Columbia also organize, little difficulty would be experienced in getting a fast team here, which would complete, at least, a four club league. The railroad jumps, with the exception of the one to Lawrenceburg, are short and the league probably would enjoy a good season from a financial standpoint.

Woman Thinks She Can't Talk Enough

"I had gall stones for 14 years and suffered severely from gas, colic and indigestion. Doctors wanted me to go to the hospital, but I took Mayr's Wonderful Remedy instead, and am now feeling fine and better than I ever did. I can't talk enough about this remedy." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the entrained mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—S. M. Thompson in Albany; Owl Drug Co. in Decatur and druggists everywhere.

DR. L. F. GOODWIN HIGHLY HONORED

DEGREE CONFERRED BY OSKALOOSA COLLEGE ON PASTOR WESTMINSTER CHURCH

At the recent commencement of Oskaloosa College of Iowa, the honorary degree of D. D. was conferred on Rev. L. F. Goodwin, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church, Albany.

This honor came as a surprise to Dr. Goodwin, whose labors have been rather remote from this old institution for several years.

Since leaving the Seminary of Cumberland University in 1898, he has not been without a pastoral charge. Most of this time has been spent in pastorates at Holden, Mo. and Franklin, Ky. It was while in the West that his work and worth was noted by the institution which today honors him.

Aside from his pastoral work, Rev. Goodwin has served his denomination in many other responsible positions. He is now chairman of Home Missions in Huntsville Presbytery, which position makes him "Pastor at large" of about twenty of the smaller churches in North Alabama. He is now completing his third year as pastor of Westminster church.

"MODEL TOWN" IS FAIRVIEW SLOGAN

DOCTORS TALBOT AND AUSTIN WILL DELIVER ADDRESSES THERE TONIGHT

Tonight Fairview will be given a chance to express its views and desires on Sanitation. Doctors Austin and Talbot will give addresses then give some instructive stereopticon lantern slides.

"All the people talked with in this town are very much interested. Every man and woman who had thought seriously over the situation must be a 'Booster', health officials stated today. With a few things mended which the public will hear about tonight, Fairview will be one of the cleanest towns in the State. It is a known fact that this could be made one of the prettiest residences sections about Albany and Decatur."

The health officials are expecting a good attendance here as they have had in Austinville and other places with as much or more enthusiasm.

WOMAN STAR TRAPPER (International News Service)

PRINCE GEORGE, B. C., June 29.—Mrs. William Chamberlain, of Invermere, is hailed as the champion woman trapper of Canada. OPERATION OF LOCAL STREET RAILWAY WILL BE CONTINUED

Similarity of Names Causes Some to Think Company Here Affected.

Operation of the local street car system will be continued, despite a rumor that the system will be affected by the proposed paving in Albany. The rumor followed publication of a news story in a Birmingham newspaper, stating that the street car system in Albany, Ga., will cease operation because of the competition of the Automobile and the high cost of street paving.

Superintendent Speer of the North Alabama Traction Company has called the Daily's attention to the following item relating to the Street Railway system in Albany, Georgia:
Albany, Ga., June 24.—Unable longer to compete with the growing number of privately owned automobiles here and faced with the prospect of bearing a part of the expense of paving streets upon which its lines operate, the Albany Transit Company, owner of the local street railway system, announced today its intention of discontinuing business and junk-ing its tracks and rolling stock.

Paving assessments would be so great the concern could not meet its payments, officials declared, and to add to its difficulties many residents from whom it expected to derive revenue when the lines began operating, had purchased automobiles, resulting in a decrease in traffic.

On account of the similarity in the names of the towns, many people may think that Albany, Alabama, is referred to, but Mr. Speer says the cars here will continue to run provided the revenues are sufficient for that purpose. Mr. Speer also pointed out that the same element which forced the Albany, Georgia, Street Car Company out of business may affect the local company.

"Inasmuch as the street car company here is already burdened with an enormous street assessment, and other streets are being paved now, we feel sure that the City Council in ordering street improvements and making assessments will carefully consider the case of the street car company with the hope that the experience of the Albany, Ga. Company may not be reproduced in Albany,
Alabama," he said.

Mr. Speer is authority for the statement that in the last three years nearly 100 street railway companies have been placed in the hands of receivers, and 61 companies, not including Albany, Georgia, have dismantled their equipment and sold it as junk, in addition to which 33 companies have abandoned operations entirely.
Does it mean that the increased use of the automobile and street paving will bring an end to street car traffic?" he asked.

AMUSEMENTS REFUSED TO OPERATE

ON BABY
The Princess Theatre will have as a special attraction next Wednesday
June 30 a powerful photoplay feature
"are you fit to marry?" This picture is founded upon the greatest problems and realities of life. Why some children are always bubbling over with health, strength and the joy of living, while others are puny, weak and ill-tempered is clearly explained in this marvelous production. There is no mawkish sentimentality, no dragging in of unsavory scenes to pander to low taste, but a clean, wholesome presentation of facts that teach the inevitable lesson, driver home with the cold steel of truth.
This picture is most interesting and should be seen by every grown child and adult—not alone from a standpoint of amusement, but for their own personal welfare. Bring your sons and daughters; it will do them good.
The film has been produced by Dr.
Harry J. Haiselden of Chicago, and the plot is based on the Bollinger baby case, which recently caused a world-wide sensation through Dr.
Haiselden's refusal to operate on the deformed baby.

This production has been arranged in a most refined manner, and in spite of the delicate subject with which it deals, there is positively nothing in it to offend anyone of either sex; but in order to avoid possible embarrassment, it will be shown to separate audiences only, and no children will be admitted.

The performances will be as follows:

Women only, 3:00-4:30 and 6 p. m.
Ladies attending by 6 o'clock, will see a complete show.
Men only from 7:30 to 10:30.
